

'Eternal Comrade Kim Il Sung, the eternal sun of the epoch'

(In occasion on 110th - Anniversary of the birth of President Kim Il Sung)

On the 15th of April 2022 it will be the 110th anniversary of the birth of the Great Leader, Comrade Kim Il Sung. It is worth recalling once again this one of the most outstanding figures of the 20th century.

Many books and works have been written about great Comrade Kim Il Sung, and we know his achievements detailed in immortal works. However, let us try to draw attention to the general, spiritual and sublime meaning of his life. When was the beginning of the immortal and spiritual aspects of the life of Comrade Kim Il Sung?

For decades, causing misery and suffering, the process of the Japanese occupation of the Korean people was developing on Korean soil. Brutal exploitation was developing and social contradictions grew worse. The oppressed Korean people's longing for freedom crashed against the shifting but still lasting brutal forms of occupation. Work - the source of man's creative progress - became the basis of his oppression and slavery. The accumulation and plunder of riches by the Japanese occupiers.

In these difficult days full of enslavement, the star of hope shone. Comrade Kim Il Sung lit the way to liberation, armed with social ideas with the powerful ideological weapon of Juche philosophy. In his speech: „The Path of Korean Revolution” in Kalun in June 1930. For the first time, he united theory with practice and with the wisdom of a genius he showed the way and direction for the Korean revolution under the banner of Juche Idea.

Using this weapon, the fighting guerrillas led by their commander Comrade Kim Il Sung grew in strength amid increasingly fierce battles with the Japanese invader until their final victory. From this period, Comrade Kim IL Sung distinguished himself as a brilliant strategist and master of guerrilla warfare.

Moreover, by preparing the peasants in the ranks of the partisan people's revolutionary army, great Comrade Kim Il Sung formed the most revolutionary communist party in the world - Workers Party of Korea.

A party of conscious, determined, relentless and most self -sacrificing fighters, standing firmly on the basis of Juche revolutionary principles, fighting relentlessly with the Japanese invader, ready to die singing on their lips under the guidance of his leader, this is the spirit and flame of the immortal Juche idea.

In the life and activities of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the highest achievements of advanced human thought and the highest achievements of revolutionary social transformations in Korean historical and material conditions were combined into an amazing unity.

The source of creative inspiration was Kim Il Sung's guidance of the Korean people, people of science, technology, art and Korean culture, inspirations that helped the heroes of the years of building the current strength and prosperity of Korea of Juche. Comrade Kim Il Sung was the source of strength for the ordinary common people in their hard struggles to overcome difficulties and obstacles of the first decades of building the Korean socialist system.

The source of creative inspiration is also today the name of comrade Kim Il Sung for hundreds of Korean workers, farmers, soldiers, as well as artists - painters, as well as young builders of socialism was the life and work of Kim Il Sung, put into their hard work the spirit of the Juche idea. The same spirit that once flared up in the guerrilla forests and will never go out again. They all found in Comrade Kim Il Sung a new expression of a new age. The expression of a unique Korean era. The era of the Korean Revolution.

His beautiful life is a model upon which human generations all over the world have learned from and will learn. There is no better way to celebrate the beautiful and glorious life of Comrade Kim Il Sung than by taking them as role models and examples. Today, the model and example of the life of Comrade Kim Il Sung touches the hearts of hundreds of millions of people in all areas of the world. The image of the life and struggle of great Comrade Kim Il Sung, awakens a hot wave of feelings in millions of revolutionaries' hearts around the world, ignites the creative enthusiasm of the Korean people and not only them. Millions of people around the world learn about his life. The knowledge of this great life full of struggle and fights, with adversities, the irresistible, captivating force flowing from his hard revolutionary attitude make him especially close to all nations who fight for national and social liberation. For these nations who struggling for freedom from capitalist exploitation and the colonial imperialist yoke of slavery. Getting to know the revolutionary activities of Comrade Kim Il Sung gives the conviction that in the person of Kim Il Sung we have an extraordinary man. He was not just the leader of the revolution, he was its actual creator, a leader of a higher type, a mountain eagle who knew no fear in combat and boldly led the Korean nation forward along the uncharted roads and specificity of the Korean road to socialism.

Getting to know the life and struggle of Comrade Kim Il Sung helps simple people, often unenlightened to grasp and understand the greatest revolutionary and arch human sense of the teaching of the Idea of Juche, the sensational and creative sense of the great idea of a man - master of everything.

When Comrade Kim Il Sung's biography and great accomplishments are known, assumptions and theories - seemingly abstract - cover a specific, close, understandable shape, elevate a person, ennoble, mobilize to fight for a better tomorrow. This great and fruitful mass movement for learning about life, revolutionary struggle and theoretical activity in the field of building the foundations of the Juche ideology - is the most valuable expression of understanding the importance of its role in shaping the new era, which brought a breakthrough in the life and history of the Korean nation, which continues to pave new paths for the development of all progressive humanity, which reveals new creative possibilities in the life of every human being. Because it is focused on it as well. On a human level. Great Comrade Kim Il Sung was focused on people as well. That is why he was loved by millions, and he also loved millions of people. He was a simple man, but great in his simplicity. As a man with a wolf revolutionary spirit, he felt comfortable among people. As he said:

„ Going among the people is like tonic and keeping oneself away from the people is like taking poison ”

As the popular masses remembered him, Comrade Kim Il Sung was able to speak and write about the most difficult parts of the Korean revolution so simply and clearly, so succinctly and boldly that his every sentence does not speak, but simply shoots. Because he combined high social knowledge with unwavering sensational fortitude and organizational talent that grew out of love for people. Never was theory diverging from deed, with practical experience. Based on experience, he developed his great theoretical thoughts.

In the light of the historical experience of the Korean revolution, we can today speak of Comrade Kim Il Sung as a mountain eagle, knowing no fear in battle and boldly leading the revolution to victory.

The whole activity of Comrade Kim Il Sung is a model of linking theory with practical and organizational experience. The greatness of Comrade Kim Il Sung genius is expressed most strongly in the closest connection between theory and revolutionary practice, and vice versa - revolution practice with theory. That is why Juche Idea - of which Comrade Kim Il Sung is the creator - is so vivid and creative. Vivid and sublime as these words of one of socialist poets:

*„ Man creates ideas, dies for them -
or idea creates man.
But how to call to him,
which form of communism he will cast away,
and in steel and concrete,
Will it be built? ”*

Today, we know how to name this man. He is the Great Eternal Leader - Comrade Kim Il Sung. Creator of the new epoch and the immortal, never - sunset star of the epoch.

On the 110th - Anniversary of the birth of the Great Leader Comrade Kim Il Sung, we are overwhelmed by deep emotions, because today our hearts on this anniversary unite with one rhythm with the hearts of Korean brothers in the memories of their Great Leader.

Let's pay a tribute to Great Leader Kim Il Sung!

Alan Bolon
Organization Secretary/Security Officer of the Korean Friendship Association UK